Dear Mr. Furfey:

As promised I have completed a draft letter for your review that would go out with Mr. Stanton's signature to businessmen in Hudson County.

I have also attached a list of prospective companies that we have indentified in Hoboken and Jersey City.

You may wish to incorporate these names in your mailing list for the corporate luncheon.

I look forward to hearing from you as to date and place for the luncheon.

Thank you in advance for all of your help.

Sincerely,

From Tom Stanton, Chairman, First Jersey National Bank

Dear _____

First Jersey National Bank has supported Aspira, Inc. of New Jersey for the past 5 years in its programs of educational achievement, leadership development and community service. Over the past 15 years, Aspira has been the leading educational agency in our state working with Hispanic youth. Aspira's counselors have worked with more than 14,000 teenagers and young adults; Aspira has helped place a remarkable 3,500 in colleges, as well as technical, graduate and medical schools, most of them in our home state.

Beginning in 1977 Hoboken and Jersey City had access to Aspira's programs in leadership development and training, and its health and business careers programs. This access was made possible through combinations of federal, state and city funding which Aspira organized and competed for. Unfortunately, vital funding from the Comprehensive Education and Training Corporation ceased as of October 31, 1983 necessitating the closing of the Hudson County Aspira Center. The demand for service is such that Aspira valiently continues to serve students in Ferris, Dickinson and Lincoln High Schools through part-time, satellite counselors who are based in Newark. This is not a sustainable <sup>alternative</sup> ~~situation~~ and is letting down the motivated Hispanic students in our area.

I feel so strongly that Aspira should maintain a presence in our County that I am hosting a special luncheon of our colleagues in the community to give them the opportunity to learn how Aspira works for all of us.

Please be my guest on _____ at _____ to meet and talk with Maria Vizcarrondo-DeSoto, Aspira's executive director, and some of her Board and corporate sponsors, and some of the young people themselves. I am enclosing some background material on Aspira which you might want to look over.

Please call my office with your confirmation.

Sincerely yours,

Tom Stanton
